How Gen Z Approaches Decision-Making: Education and Career

Top Seven Key Findings and Implications

INTRODUCTION

Gen Z's decision journey is a complex process that involves critical thinking, self-reflection, and exploration. Understanding how Gen Z approaches decision-making is essential for educators, parents, and advisors. This report provides insights into the decision-making process of Gen Z, focusing on their education and career choices. The findings are based on a comprehensive research study conducted by ASA, covering a range of topics from decision-making strategies to the influence of various sources on their education and career choices.

1. Gen Z's decision journey is a complex process that involves critical thinking, self-reflection, and exploration.
2. Gen Z's education and career choices are significantly influenced by their personal connections and self-reflection.
3. Gen Z's decision-making process is influenced by a wide range of sources, including friends, family, personal connections, and online research.
4. Gen Z's education and career choices are shaped by a desire for a clear path to long-term growth.
5. Gen Z's education and career choices are influenced by their personal connections and self-reflection.
6. Gen Z's decision-making process is influenced by a wide range of sources, including friends, family, personal connections, and online research.
7. Gen Z's decision-making process is influenced by a wide range of sources, including friends, family, personal connections, and online research.

IMPLICATIONS

Decision Journey

- Gen Z's decision journey is a complex process that involves critical thinking, self-reflection, and exploration.
- Understanding how Gen Z approaches decision-making is essential for educators, parents, and advisors.
- The findings are based on a comprehensive research study conducted by ASA, covering a range of topics from decision-making strategies to the influence of various sources on their education and career choices.

College/Career Plans and Motivations and Career Exploration

- College/Career Plans and Motivations and Career Exploration
- Decision Journey
- Reflection
- Self
- Online
- Advisors

Career Exploration and Planning for the Future

- Career Exploration and Planning for the Future
- Gen Z Success/Happiness
- Top Seven Key Findings and Implications
- IMPLICATIONS

©2021 American Student Assistance. All rights reserved.